Chaplain's Corner ~ Deacon Len Gruber

Brother Knights,

Well, once again we are awaiting the agony of the death of Jesus. We are so blessed in knowing the Resurrection will follow. How very devastating it must have been for His disciples as He died, and they knew not that we would see Him rise once more.

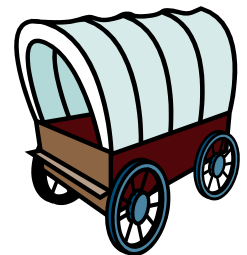

As I see Lent once more I am lost in wonder that Jesus died for me. In all my sin and anger I know I am not worthy of His love for me. As I receive Holy Communion I ask God to make me less unworthy of Him coming to me. How can we unworthy sinners earn the right to life with Jesus? We can't. It is a gift from Him. Our lives, our deaths and our new life in heaven are a gift from Jesus. When we turn away from Him we turn our back on His gifts to us.

As a child we each abstained from candy. We were hoarding our candy for Easter morning. Let us all do more this year. I will offer my life to Him. I will try to be more like Him. I will be gentle and forgiving, humble and not proud, and more accepting of what I have been given by God. I ask all of you to do the same. May Easter find us all much closer to who Jesus wants us to be.

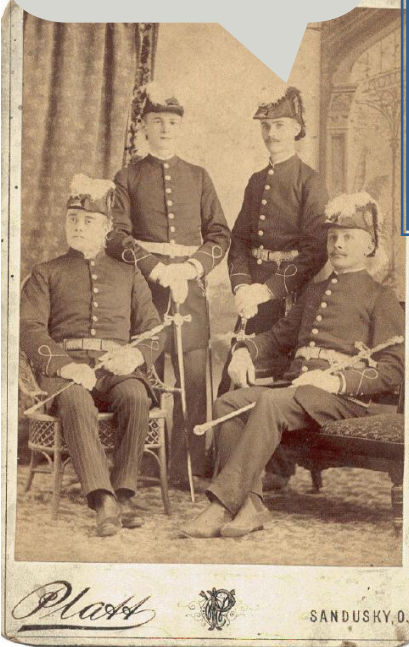

Come Holy Spirit. Deacon Len
